

Lecturer in Discipline

The Department of Mechanical Engineering at Columbia University in the City of New York invites applications for faculty at the rank of Lecturer in Discipline beginning in the 2018-19 academic year. Lecturers in Discipline are full-time non-tenure track faculty members whose primary responsibility is teaching. The Department of Mechanical Engineering is committed to hiring outstanding teachers to support the growing needs of its exceptionally strong graduate and undergraduate programs. We seek exceptional candidates to teach interdisciplinary classes related to mechanical engineering design, product design, and the design processes itself, with applications across all mechanical engineering disciplines including robotics, mechatronics, mechanical systems, thermal systems and energy systems. The initial term of the appointment will be two years, with the possibility of reappointment.

Teaching responsibilities for lecturers include courses throughout the graduate and advanced undergraduate mechanical engineering curriculum with a typical teaching load of two to three courses per semester.
